

for healing the body naturally!

Emotional Rescue™ patch is a product that was developed as a complementary therapy program that is accepted by Doctors and Practitioners as an aid to support and restore the body's energetic function.

Made in the U.S.A.

Does anger and frustration negatively affect your daily life? Have they harmed your relationships, work, and/or your health? Do you find it difficult to return to normal after being triggered? No matter how hard you try, do you find yourself overcome with your own anger issues?

Emotional Rescue patch has been designed to support the way your brain and body handle anger, frustration, and the stress caused by these toxic emotions.

Use Emotional Rescue patch when experiencing: anger and frustration. Use as well to provide a beneficial support in any therapy dealing with anger and frustration management.

These Apps have been tested extensively and proven by the many who have experienced them to provide rapid relief to your body's coping mechanisms to handle anger and frustration.

The patch or 'bio-apps' are made to rapidly promote and activate the necessary resources to optimize body and brain function, restore missing cell communication, and accelerate the body's natural ability to heal itself.

Also experience these Therapy Apps that address:

- ✓ Stress & Anxiety
- ✓ Depression

Proper Placement

Place the Emotional Rescue patch on the left side of the body. Energy from the patch is accepted far better than the right side. Please follow directions that are stated below for best results.

Emotional Rescue™

Instructions: The Emotional Rescue patch is to be applied to your body, (left shoulder) to help manage the feelings of anger and frustration. Made to last for 3 days, then discard.

Apply another patch and wear it for additional 3 days to help manage anger.

Repeat this procedure for 30 days or until you can manage your aggression and frustration.

If needed, continue with procedure for an additional 30 days.
