Proper Placement

Place the Weight Loss patch on the left side of the body. Energy travels to the left of your body far better than the right side. For best results, please follow directions that are stated below. The "Weight Loss" patch is the perfect solution for balancing your metabolic process, and your body's energetic field for losing weight effectively. When we consume food it converts into chemical energy, which provides the nutritional need for energy and growth. This connection is defined by the laws of thermodynamics that requires all humans to 'burn' food for energy.
